BID LIKE AN AUDITOR IS WATCHING: PREPARING FOR USAC BIDDING PORTAL & E-RATE COMPLIANCE REVIEWS

The USAC competitive bidding portal is coming whether we like it or not! This portal will introduce a new level of visibility into the E-Rate procurement process. With bids, evaluations, contracts, and supporting documentation becoming increasingly centralized and accessible to USAC and the FCC, applicants should prepare for a future where compliance is demonstrated—not assumed. Join us as we discuss what is currently known about the portal, review common audit and review types, explore frequent findings, and share practical strategies for maintaining defensible procurement records. Whether you're an E-Rate veteran or new to the program, you'll leave with tools and best practices to help your organization remain compliant from bid opening through final audit.

E-RATE INVOICING & SAM.GOV

Navigate the E-Rate invoicing process with clarity and confidence in this practical, step-by-step session. Participants will gain a clear understanding of the differences between BEAR and SPI invoicing methods, key submission deadlines, and common mistakes that can delay reimbursement. The session also covers SAM.gov registration and maintenance requirements to ensure accounts remain active and compliant. Attendees will leave with actionable strategies to streamline invoicing workflows, avoid costly errors, and ensure timely receipt of E-Rate funds.

E-RATE UNPLUGGED: EXPERT PANEL Q&A

Join a panel of experienced E-Rate professionals for an interactive, participant-driven discussion focused entirely on your questions. This open forum provides clear explanations and practical guidance on real-world challenges, emerging issues, and common compliance concerns. Whether you are navigating complex applications, competitive bidding, invoicing, or audits, this session offers direct access to expert insight. FREE ISN'T FREE: UNDERSTANDING FCC GIFT RULES & VENDOR COMPLIANCE

This session provides an overview of FCC gift rules and their impact on E-Rate compliance. Participants will learn how the gift rules intersect with open and fair competitive bidding requirements and review common violations involving meals, entertainment, promotional items, and free equipment or services. The class will also examine potential funding consequences of noncompliance and highlight practical strategies to protect funding and maintain procurement integrity. Attendees will leave with clear guidance and best practices to support compliant decision-making across IT, purchasing, and service provider teams throughout the E-Rate cycle.

FROM INSTALL TO INVOICE – CLOSING OUT YOUR C2 PROJECTS

Successfully closing out a Category Two project requires careful coordination and compliance from installation through final invoicing. This session provides a clear roadmap for managing completion deadlines, equipment documentation, asset tracking, and audit preparation. Participants will learn how to maintain accurate records, avoid common closeout errors, and meet documentation standards established by the Federal Communications Commission and by the Universal Service Administrative Company. Attendees will leave with practical tools and confidence to complete projects efficiently while protecting funding and ensuring smooth reimbursement.

FROM UTILIZATION TO TRANSFORMATION: LEVERAGING E-RATE TO FUND DISTRICTWIDE INFRASTRUCTURE AT SCALE

Discover how strategic planning and strong program oversight can transform E-Rate from a funding opportunity into a districtwide infrastructure solution. This session highlights a real-world case study of a large district that successfully leveraged Category 2 and special construction funding to modernize internal networks and expand fiber connectivity. Presenters will share practical lessons on multi-year planning, competitive bidding for complex projects, compliance management, and large-scale implementation coordination. Attendees will gain replicable strategies to maximize funding, strengthen governance, and drive long-term technology transformation.

LEADING WITH INFLUENCE: POLICY AND ADVOCACY FOR E-RATE SUCCESS

Effective advocacy plays a critical role in protecting and strengthening E-Rate funding at the local, state, and federal levels. TECH WORKSHOPS

INTELESYS: ARTICULATING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Cyberattacks have radically evolved—from opportunistic malware to targeted, business-disrupting campaigns powered by automation and AI. In this session, we'll look back to how attacks have changed over the years, what the modern-day cybersecurity tool stack should look like today, and why "it's not if, it's when" should shape every organization's recovery plan. You'll learn about the most common attack types. We'll also tackle why continuous security awareness training is your strongest control and your greatest challenge. Finally, we'll look at the 2026 threat landscape—AI-driven attacks and agent-enabled adversaries—and what's next, including deepfake audio/video and the emerging implications of quantum-era risk.

INTELESYS: THE FUTURE IS CYBER SECURE

Artificial Intelligence is here to stay, and business leaders must understand, govern, and leverage it responsibly. This session takes a look at the history of AI and why generative AI represents a turning point for productivity and decision-making. Attendees will gain a clear view of what AI can realistically do today, where organizations often stumble, and how unchecked adoption can introduce risk to data, people, and reputation. We'll explore practical ways to harness AI's capabilities while putting the right safeguards in place—protecting your organization, your staff, and your customers without slowing innovation. From establishing responsible use guidelines to identifying high value business use cases, this session equips leaders with the clarity and confidence needed to adopt AI thoughtfully, securely, and strategically.
